SEND IN YOUR VOTES TO-DAY

Who is the Most Popular Giant?

Coupon in Noon, Baseball and Final Editions

Fair to-night and Saturday.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

FAST IN WRECKAGE

One Dead, One Dying and More Than Thirty Injured in Daylight Wreck on Brooklyn Rapid Transit Road.

THE DEAD.

of a broken back, fractured skull and internal injuries.

THE INJURED.

BAILEY, ROSE, fourteen years old, of No. 388 DeKalb avenue; contusions tions of face.

CAFIA, CASPER, of No. 627 Broadway; Incerations of face.

DUNBAR, LEE, sixteen years old, of No. 488 Manhattan avenue; left leg and side injured.

GUYON, MRS. D., of No. 4906 Fourth avenue; lacerations of head

HOUGHTON, J. L., of No. 113 Kosciusko street; bruises and cuts. KIRSCH, LOUIS, thirty-one years old, conductor on Cypress Hills train; skull

KAUFMAN, A., of No. 806 Lexington avenue; bruises of body PARBINI, ROSE, of No. 84 Catherine street; lacerations of head. ROBINSON, DAVID P., of No. 864 Bedford avenue; cuts on face and hands. SHEROTH, MRS M., of Ferris street; hips and right side injured. SHEBHAN, PATRICK, of No. 104 Edgecomb avenue; lacerations of head. TOMPKINS, E. C., of No. 304 Evergreen avenue; cuts on face and hands.

WALTON, A. H., of No. 1045 Madison avenue; bruised and cut.

require the services of ambulance surgeons.

ment of the B. R. T. the blame for the wreck is placed upon the dead for a while on the front stoop with the motorman. The train he struck was in plain view for two minutes be- other tenants. They had little to say

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

At Philadelphia.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

FIRST GAME

At Washington.

SECOND GAME.

At Cleveland.

Batteries-Howell and Spencer; Jos

Batteries—Walsh and Sullivan; Mullen and Schmidt. Umpires—Messrs. Hurst

EASTERN LEAGUE.

Chicago 0 0 0 1 0 1 Detroit 0 1 0 0 0 0

Rochester 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 0 Ruffalo 0 1 0 0 0 1 0

and O'Loughlin.

William Fuchs, a flagman, standing at the side of the track, waved a red danger signal a block away from the standing train, but Koellner evidently did not see it. An examination and able to bring his train to a stop by ap-

$50,000 in Checks Lost.

The four-car empty train was on the following in case of a breakdown. fire probably by a piece of waste dripping from a hot box on a preceding train. He shut off the power and stopped his train and signalled with his tinguish the fire on the track. Len Hansen, a yardman, joined him.

Train' Did Not Stop.

Fuchs saw the Cypress Hill train apthe flag. He waved his signal, but the standing at his post and looking ahead.

(Continued on Second Page.)

YORK, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1908.

KOELLNER, FRED., motorman Cypress Hills train; died in the hospital

ABATE, GASPARD, of No. 143 Hamburg avenue; bruised and cut.

CANNELLA, SAM, of No. 2984 Atlantic avenue; cut by glass.

DONNELLY, EDWARD, of No. 312 Stockton street; cuts on face and hands. FLEMING, MRS. F., of No. 198 Bradford street; contusions of body and head. HOLT, MRS. A., twenty-three years old, of No. 830 Forty-second street; bruises and hysteria.

WINTERHOLDER, MRS. KATE, of No. 367 Skelton street; internal injuries and possible concussion of brain.

On a straight, up-grade track, in bright sunshine, this afternoon Fred disappeared, he spent much of his time Koellner, a B. R. T. motorman, ran a three-car Cypress Hills "L" train, at home. The only visitor they had was a strange man who used to call crowded with passengers, into a train of four empty cars standing on sometimes in the evening. the east-bound track in Myrtle avenue at Cumberland street. Koellner the husband gloomy. He had no money died less than an hour later with a broken back. Louis Kirsch, conductor rent and the installment people threatof the Cypress Hills train, was probably fatally hurt. Between thirty ened him. The neighbors on either side of them, through the thin walls, heard and forty passengers suffered injury, but nearly half of them did not the couple quarrelling bitterly two

In a statement given out by the officials of the operating depart- out cause.

test after the accident showed that the Boston

Philadelphia Batteries - Flaherty and Graham; Foxen and Dooin. Umpire-Emsile. der. Motormen say that, considering the grade. Koeliner should have been plying the brakes within twenty feet.

But Koellner is dead, and the cause of the wreck must forever remain a mystery. A feature of it was the loss by a bank messenger of a satchel containing $50,000 worth of checks. way to the Fresh Pond yards to be laid way to the Fresh Pond yards to be late up. It was in charge of Joseph Ken- Philadelphit ... 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 2 3-7 Washington ... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0 man, and William Fuchs was riding in the rear car for the purpose of going back with a red flag to signal a train Just beyond Cumberland avenue Ken-Cleveland 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 nelly saw that a tie about half a block and ahead was burning. It had been set on Egan.

whistle to Fuchs to go back with the Then he went ahead, carrying his otorbox controller in his hand to ex-proaching at full speed a couple of Knapp and McAllister. Umpiresminutes after he had gone back with O'Brien and Rudderham. At Toronto train did not slacken speed. Fuchs Montreal 0 0 2 0 0 0 0 4 0-6 swollen flesh.

says the motorman appeared to be Toronto 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 The long er standing at his post and looking ahead. Batteries—Jones and Clark, Moffitt and Pearce. Umpires—Black and Wilkinson. At Baltimore.

Providence 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 Baltimore 0 0 1 0 1 0 0 0

WOMAN WITH RED AND STRANGLED

Young and Pretty Bride of Crowd at Bronx Zoo Witness Two Months Found Slain In Room.

Has Not Been Seen Since He Jocko's Sudden Attack Takes Left House Several bound, gagged and strangled to death of the tenement at No. 315 East Forty-fifth street She was Mrs. Annie R. Mauro, a bride of two months. The police all over the city have been asked to arrest her husband, Antonio Mauro, lately employed as a ticket chopper on the Third avenue "L" road. He has not been seen since he left the house Monday night.

Nights Ago.

The Mauros came to the old tenement on July 12, which was their wedding day. The bride still wore her marriage old, plump, with black eyes and fingers loaded with rings-real diamond rings, so Mrs. Katie Barrone, the janitress, old, tall and slender, with a queerlysloped oval face and a short mustache. He was dapper and quick in his move-

Husband Had Been Morose.

The man paid Mrs. Barrone one month's rent in advance-$12. The flat was furnished with cheap gaudy fixings of an east side instalment house, all new and shiny. Three weeks ago Mauro lost his job on the Houston street time on until Monday night, when he

The loss of work apparently made with which to pay the second month's nights last weeck. It was plain that Mauro was jealous, and seemingly with-to each other. Finally Mauro told his wife go upstairs. She demurred, saying she wanted to stay a little

"You go on," he bade her, roughly, "or there'll be trouble."

The yr ng wife went upstairs. Her surly he and followed her. An hour later, or ossibly two hours, he was seen to cutie out of his flat, lock the and crying. But one girl sped to the door on the outside and hurry down- lion house, where she found Engelholm. stairs and out into the street. He has not been seen since. Break in to Find Body.

the incident of the stoop, but nobody, it seemed, missed her until to-day, Batteries-Plank and Powers: Johnson when an unpleasant smell in the hall sent Mrs. Barrone to the fifth floor flat. There was a notice from the instalment house, which had evidently been tacked on the door Wednesday.

Batteries—Coombs and Lapp: Hughes and Street. Umpire—Connolly. peated knocks, Mrs. Barrone became alarmed and went looking for a policeman. She found Policemen Frank Berger and Joseph Toomey, of the East Fifty-fifth street station. These two his condition was serious.

burst in the door. They came upon the murder in the second room of the set-a dark, passage-like place, lighted from the airshaft, and evidently used as a bedroom and dining-room.

On the floor lay the body of the bride, with her arms twisted under her. A handkerchief was stuffed in her mouth for a gag, and about the rope of crimson silk. Later it was found to be a red automobile veil. probably part of the girl's wedding gear. It had been rolled into a cord and bound about her neck so tightly as to draw deep into the folds of

The long ends of the vell had been carried down from the knot beneath the

> (Continued on Second Page.) $55.00 to California

SAVAGE MONKEY

Terrible Battle Waged Twenty Minutes.

HER HUSBAND SOUGHT. KEEPER BADLY INJURED.

Reilly Off Guard in Primate Cage.

Re'lly was down on the floor uncenscious, with the victorious monkey

Until lately Jocko, as he is called, had been one of the pets of the Primate House. He was a pheasus from Northern India, an unusually large, fine specimen of his species, standing nearly three feet high and weighing between forty and fifty pounds.

Fred Engleholm, the head keeper, went on vacation a month ago and Jocko, always docile and friendly in his hands, missed him greatly. The brute refused to eat or play and sulked for says. Mauro wore his uniform as a he occupied alone. When Engelholm gateman. He is about twenty-six years came back he found his old playmate morose and vicious, refusing even to obey his old master. Only a day or two ago Engelholm had to knock Jocko out ments. Both of them spoke good Eng- with a bat to save himself from in-

This morning Rellly, who is a young Bescher, rf. 1 man, living at No. 70 Fairmount avenue, entered the cage to clean it. The Hoblitzell, 1b. 0 2 11 big gray creature gloomed in a corner. Mowrey, 3b. 0 forenaws over his head. De ceived into carelessness by this attitude and in his heart despising the monkey's strength, Reilly turned his Dubus, p. 0 0 0 4 0 back on the crouched beast and began *Ganzel 0 0 to sweep out the straw and litter.

on Reilly's shoulders, clawing and biting. Reilly grappled with the monkey and they threshed about, the man striking with his fists at the furry brute that clung to him and trying to tear him loose, so that he could crush him Shannon, cf. to the floor and kick him to death.

gled-a five by nine floor, was a big Leach, 3b. 0 0 2 3 handicap to the man, while it suited the Wagner, 88. 2 2 3 2 monkey, which could fling itself from Gill, 1b. 0 0 10 0 almost too quick for the eye to fol- Starr, 2b. 0 1 2 low. In the first shock, Reilly had lost Wilson, rf. 0 0 1 his broom. It slipped through the bars Gibson, c. 0 1 4 0 tomatic catch which held the cage door, for if he had lowered his arms Totals 2 4 27 10 1 for a moment, he would have had the gray demon at his throat. He began to call for help. There were no men spectators in the monkey house —only women and children. Most of House Hit—Bescher. no men spectators in the monkey nouse The head keeper got there barely in time to save his helper. Reilly was down, senseless, with his face in the Nobody to-day could recall having straw, while -Jocko, with his small, trying to get at his throat. Enge holm out of the cage.

Martin H. Bullwinkle, a saloonkeeper. it as a suicide.

A month ago plumbers repairing pipes | they did last spring. in Bullwinkle's place broke a gas cock, and the saloon man was nearly asphyxiated in a nearby room. He re-covered, and since he has worried a great deal.

His excise license was to have been renewed on Oct. 1, and he feared that he would not have the money to pay the State fee.

World Wants Work Wonders

ISBURGS DEFEAT TO-DAY'S SCORES:

NATIONAL LEAGUE. Brooklyn 0 0 0 0 0 Cincinnati 0 0 0 Pittsburg Chicago

AMERICAN LEAGUE 0 1 0 0 Highlanders

SECOND GAME 1 0 0 0 Highlanders Boston

PITTSBURG

Lobert, 88. 0

0 0 0 that he will have a snap in the remain-With a chatter of rage Jocko landed Totals 1 6 24 14 1 ber. McCloskey, the St. Louis manager, him out by a step. Lumley met the *Ganzel batted for Kane in ninth thinks differently, but his ordinon is not shared in by many of his followers here in St. Louis, who think the Cubs will struck out. NO RUNS.

R. H. PO. A. E. The cribbed space in which they strug. Clarke, If. 0 0 5

Three-base Hit-Bescher.
Two-base Hits-Hoblezell, Wagner.
Stolen Bases-Lobert, Search.
Umpire-Regler.

(Special to The Evening World.) EXPOSITION PARK, PITTSBURG. seen Mrs. Mauro from the time of wicked face badly battered, but still full Sept. 11.—Nhe new titching material that of fight, danced over his prostrate foe. Pittsburg has captured for next year had to beat the monkey almost to death looks very promising. Brandom and with a club before he could drag Reilly Vail have already reported and from their action seem to have the goods. Reilly was in frightful shape. His Young Sifton, from the Southern face was cut in many places his left League, has been doing some wonderful thumb was chewed practically off, there work in that organization since he was a four-inch gash in his back, and toined Memphis lately. Murray Parker. from the severed main artery of his of the Springfield. Mass., team, in the right wrist blood jumped in spurts. Dr. last two games has allowed but three Heichel rushed mim in an ambulance hits in the last eighteen innings he has the fact that he gave but one walk. Barry, from Providence, along with Frock, both look good, as they have demonstrated that they have the goods. Should the Pirates discover another Maddox among the bunch Manager Clarke will start out next season with the arather clever lot of slab artists. Abstein, who will again be seen with the Pirates, has improved greatly and such plates, has improved greatly and such plates, has improved greatly and such plates, and fluter and a good base stealer. With a good first-sacker the Pirates will certainly have a better team to size the season of 1979 than they did last spring.

Bayless was easy, Leach to Gill. Wagner had to hustle to get Huggins's tap over Camnitz's head, but his throw (Continued on Second Page.)

Fourth Inning.

Fromme and Kenetchy got Tinker. King singled to left field and toods and wild pitch. Pfelster to Chance. Slagle came in for Osteen's boost. Murray raced to third sae, Konetchy taking second on Hofman's throw to Steinfeldt. Murdock scoring Murray and Konetchy. Tinker grabbed Byrne's dinky liner. Two Sixth inning.

Evers walked. Schulte sacrificed. Fromme to Konetchy, Chance walked. Schulte sacrificed. Fromme to Konetchy, Chance walked. Steinfeldt singled bringing the bases. Crantel and the same way. Hummel fouled bright foul line, scoring. Willing singled to left field and toods was ordered out of the game and Farmber took his place. Steinfeldt and Hofman and Kling the bases. Crantel and Hofman and Kling the bases. Crantel and Hofman and Kling the base of the plate. Steinfeldt and Hofman and Kling singled to right field. Chaste.

Kally Scoring Hofman threw out Sheehan. Two the same way. Hummel fouled bright foul line dato McCornick. Mullen was out the same way. Hummel fouled bright foul line, scoring dato to the field to McCornick. Lumley was out the same way. Hummel fouled bright foul line, scoring the field to McCornick. Lumley was out the same way. Hummel fouled to fever the field to McCornick. Sixth inning.

Evers walked. Schulte sacrificed. Fromme t to Fordham Hospital, where it was said pitched. What makes him look good is was found dead with a bullet in his both a hard hitter and a good base brain at No. 736 Bedford avenue, Brook- stealer. With a good first-racker the lyn, this afternoon. The police report | Pirates will certainly have a better

CHICAGO

THE BATTING ORDER. St. Louis. Shaw, If. Charles, 2b. Osteen, ss. Murray, rf.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. II.—Figuring on the way the Cubs trimmed the Cardito have them called as early as 3.30.

6 o'clock to play good ball these early dail, 3.

Three-Base Hit—Herzog. Two-Base Hit—Herzog. nals yesterday Manager Chance figures ing games of the series—three in num- Devlin got Burch's grounder and threw Cormick. Tenney and Mo-shape for the final clash in the East. First Inning.

Shaw made a rank muff of Slagle's fly and the batter reached first base. Evers singled to centre field, sending and he had to fight with bare hands. Camnitz, p. 0 0 0 1 0 Slagle to third base. Schulte sent a long fly to Murray, Slagle scoring. Chance singled over second base. Evers taking third base. Steinfeldt's long walked. Kling got Murdock's foul. Byrne was out, Evers to Chance. NO. Third Inning.

Murray lifted to Hofman. Konetchy walked. Kling got Murdock's foul.

Schulte popped to Charles. Chauce leat out a bounder to Byrne. Murray of Steinfeldt's fly. Hofman lifted to shaw. NO RUNS. Bliss elevated to Hofman. Steinfeldt chucked out Fromme. A lightning as-sist by Steinfeldt got Shaw on a bust. NO RUNS.

Bliss rolled Pfeister. Sallee walked. Seymour.
Shaw singled to right field. Charles walked, filling the bases. Osteen lifted to Hofman, Sallee scoring. Schulte got Murray's drive. ONE RUN.

man shuffe Seymour.
Sending A scored. W ONE RUN.

Crandall Pitches Splendid Ball and Holds Brooklyn Team Safe at All Stages, While New Yorkers Hit Wilhelm Opportunely.

BROOKLYN.

Struck Out-By Wilhelm, 3; by Cran-

Stolen Bases-Maloney, Devlin, Her-

Passed Ball—Maloney. Umpires—Messrs. Johnstone and TEAMS NOW STAND.

Eighth Inning.

Devlin walked and went to third on McCormick's hot single to right. Burch made a great catch of Bridwell's low line fly. Crandell walloped to deep left for two sees and Daylin

Lumley, ri 0

McMillan, ss..... 0

POLO GROUNDS. Sept. 11.-That close shave of yesterday brought the Tenney, 1b...... 0 fans boiling into the Polo Grounds this he rog, 2b...... 2 afternoon, and early indications pointed Bre mahan, c...... 1 to a crowd of 15.000. While Brooklyn is Don.in, rf...... 0 not the strongest attraction in the world. they have been causing a lot of trouble Seymour, cf...... 0 around this town of late, and rooters of Devlin, 3b 2 all grades had to come out this after- McCormick, If 1 noon and lend their moral support to Bridwell, ss...... 0 McGraw. The Giants must have six Crandall, p...... 0 straight games from Brooklyn is the ory of the fans, and they are well along Totals 6 10 27 11 in that direction. Wiltse was scheduled to pitch this afternoon, and he is just right to hand the Superbas another lacing. He was warmed up and ready to go in yesterday at Brooklyn, but at the last moment Me-Graw decided that he had better save Hummel, If 0 atm for to-day. Wilhelm was announced Jordan, 1b..... 0 as the entry for Brooklyn early in the Algerma n, 2b 1 day, but you never can tell what these baseball managers will do at the last

Sheehan, 3b 0 Malo, e/, c 0 of a good catcher, but Maloney is get- Farmer, c..... 0 1 2 ting welded into the job, and he is lia- Windm, p...... 0 ble to stop some of that base running that the Giants have had so much fun Totals 1 7 17 16 out of for the past few days. First Base on Balls-Off Wilhelm, 4;

Fans all over town hailed with delight the starting of the games at 3.45 instead of 4 o'clock. It is too dark after

First Inning.

Second Inning.

Alperman was thrown out by Bridwell. Tenney making a beautiful pickup at first. McCormick made a great running catch of McMillan's long drive to left. Sheehan walked, and on the hit and run piay went to third, when Maloney shot a single past second. Maloney stole second, but Wilhelm was called out on strikes. NO RUNS.

Seymour grounded out to Jordan, unassisted. Sheehan tossed out Devlin. McCormick cracked a single to right. Bridwell filed to Burch. NO RUNS.

Third Inning. Chicago 81 51 Donlin rolled out Alperman to Jordan, Seymour struck out. NO RUNS. Hurch walked, but was forced on Lumley's grounder, Tenney to Bridwell, Hummell flied to Seymour, Herzog threw out Jordan, NO RUNS, throw by Byrne. TWO RUNS.

Evers knocked down Shaw's liner and got him at first base. Charles out. Tinker to Chafice. Osteen fouled to Chance. NO RUNS.

Second Inning.

Tinker singled to left and stole second base. A wild pitch put him on third base. Kling lifted to Murdock, Tinker scoring. Pfeister fanned. Slagle beat out a roller to short. Evers Murray lifted to Hofman. Konetchy walked. Kling got Murdock, Walked Indiana, Kongton, Walked, Wa Donlin got Jordan's long fly to right.

After making a one-hand stop Devlin tossed out Alperman. McMflan was called out on strikes. NO RUNS.

Donlin fanned. Maloney dropping the third strike and throwing him out at first. Seymour's bounder hit Jordan in the chest and was good for a single.

Sheehan. Tenney stole second, and on the throw to catch him McCormick stole home. effrzog slapped a single into left, scoring Tenney, and took second on the throw to the plate. Herzog made a to Sheehan. THREE RUNS.

Ninth Inning. third strike and throwing him out at to Sheeman. THREE, REAS, first, Seymour's bounder hit Jordan in the chest and was good for a single. Devlin promptly smashed a single into right and Seymour took third. Mc-perman singled to right, and McMillan Cormick struck out. Devlin stole second. Bridwell walked, filling the bases, ble play, Bridwell to Herzog to Tenney, laberman taking third. Farmer fouled Crandall forced out Bridwell. MeMilian to Alperman. NO RUNS.

Alperman. NO RUNS. Fifth Inning.

Bridwell tossed out Sheenan. Maloney flied to McCormick. Wilhelm was out,

CROSS AT WEIGHT FOR BIG BATTLE

fourth street. Neither man moved the beam, which was set at 135 pounds, Maneger White, of the National Athseymour. Sheehan singled to high seymour. Sheehan singled to third. Farmer sending Alperman to third. Farmer splendid condition. The "Fighting Harp" splendid condition. The "Fighting Harp" said he never felt better. "He certainly said he never felt better." said White. letic Club, was surprised at Fitzgerald's threw out Bresnahan and never looked better," said White.